

ROY BEAUMONT, '91

HOTEL & LODGING MANAGEMENT

Roy Beaumont attributes many of his accomplishments and career success to attending the College of DuPage. In fact, COD has been a big part of the Beaumont family. Both of his brothers, Michael and Andrew graduated from the College while buying books from their mother Carolyn in the bookstore and watching their father Ron—also a hotelier—serve on the College’s hospitality advisory committee nearly 30 years.

After receiving his associate degree in science, Beaumont went on to receive an MBA at Purdue University and worked in several capacities in the hospitality industry (Oak Brook Hills Hotel and Resort, Switzerland’s Grand Hotel Resort and Munich’s Hotel Bayerischer Hof) before joining Marriott International in 1997. During his 20-year tenure, he has been promoted several times and now serves as vice president of their select brands directing strategic planning responsibilities for more than 3,000 hotels and 10 lodging brands including Courtyard, Residence Inn and Aloft.

Beaumont serves on the Marriott advisory boards for Children’s Miracle Network Hospitals and Wounded Warriors Family Support, as well as the Strategic Advisory Council of Purdue University’s Hotel Tourism Management School. If Beaumont’s home were 650 miles closer, he’s confident that his wife SueAnne and three young boys Braydon, Beckham and Bennett would also be involved at the College in some capacity.
