

ANGEL M. TRAUB, '96

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS

Angel received her Associate in Arts from College of DuPage in 1996. After her time at COD, she went on to receive her BA in Corporate Communications from NIU, summa cum laude, and then her law degree (JD) from UIC Law, magna cum laude. Angel is currently a family, estates and mediation attorney and principal owner of the all-female law firm of A. Traub & Associates with offices in Lombard, Arlington Heights, and Wheaton. Among her many notable achievements, Angel currently serves as the president of the DuPage County Bar Association. She has remained active at the College by serving on the College of DuPage Foundation Board as well as the Chaparral Alumni Network Executive Committee and has served on several committees along the way.