

MAUREEN DUNNE, PH.D. '95

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS

Maureen graduated from College of DuPage with her Associate in Arts in 1995. She then obtained her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Chicago, a master's from the London School of Economics and a doctorate from Oxford University, where she attended as the first-ever community college graduate to be granted the Rhodes Scholarship. Maureen is co-founder/managing partner of the first social impact investment association focused on neurodiversity as well as Senior Advisor/Neurodiversity Expert at the Lego Foundation. She currently serves on the Association of Community College Trustees Board of Directors, as ICCTA President, and as Board Chair for the COD Board of Trustees.