

ROB JANNUSCH

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS

Rob Jannusch received three degrees from College of DuPage: an Associate in Arts in 1998, an Associate in Science in 1999, and an Associate in General Studies in 1999. He was a graduate of the Honors Scholar program and named the Outstanding Male Graduate in 1999. While at COD, his academic achievements also included being the recipient of the 1998 Carter D. Carroll Excellence in History Award and being named to the 1999 USA Today All-USA

Academic Team. In addition to achieving academically, Jannusch also was a member of the College's nationally ranked soccer teams in 1998 and 1999. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and philosophy, with a history minor, from Duke University in 2002, and his Master of Science degree in finance from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign in 2014. At COD, Jannusch recently established an endowed scholarship, the Shirley M. Jannusch Memorial Scholarship, to be awarded annually, beginning this year, in honor of his late mother. Currently, he is employed as a senior paralegal at Kirkland & Ellis LLP in Chicago, where he assists attorneys with private equity and mergers and acquisition transactions.
